2. AGENCY WORKERS REGULATIONS

- 2.1. You will promptly notify us in writing immediately upon it coming to your notice that you may have grounds for complaint concerning any aspects of such entitlements as you may have under the Agency Workers Regulations 2010, in order that we may have a proper opportunity to investigate and make any necessary changes.
- 2.2. Where we have, at your request, agreed to implement a salary sacrifice arrangement in order to pay employers contributions into a SIPP or other registered pension scheme for you, you agree that the amount so sacrificed shall nevertheless be taken into account as forming part of your pay, when assessing your pay entitlement under regulation 5 of the Agency Worker Regulations 2010.
- 2.3. If, in relation to any Assignment,
 - 2.3.1. you have completed the Qualifying Period under regulation 7 of the Agency Worker Regulations 2010, and
 - 2.3.2. the amount you receive in pay under that Assignment (calculated as set out in clause 2.2 above) exceeds that which you would have been paid if you had been engaged by the hirer for the position other than by using the services of a temporary work agency (the 'Excess'), and then credit shall be given for the amount of the Excess against the Shortfall, and the amount of the Excess shall be considered to have been received by you on account of any entitlements you may have to receive the Shortfall.

3. PAYMENT

- 3.1. Wages: You are entitled to wages for all authorised time actually worked on Assignment, subject in all cases to you complying with all applicable procedures and requirements. We undertake that we will pay your wages for all authorised time actually worked on Assignment, whether or not we ourselves receive payment in respect of that work.
 - 3.1.1. Time worked in excess of those specified in your current Employee Assignment Schedule will only be paid if authorised by the End Client, and so if you work additional time without first getting such authorisation, you accept the risk that such time will be unpaid.
 - 3.1.2. Your wages will be paid on the basis of a Fixed Assignment-Specific Rate, as specified in your current Assignment Schedule.
 - 3.1.3. For the avoidance of doubt there is no obligation on any End Client to require you to work on any day, and no obligation on us to make payment in respect of any day on which your services are not required.
 - 3.1.4. You will be paid monthly in arrears, directly into your bank account, unless otherwise indicated in your current Employee Assignment Schedule.
 - 3.1.5. You will be provided with a payslip for each pay period, which will include a statement of the number of hours worked during that pay period.
- 3.2. Reimbursement of Expenses: At the start of each Entire Assignment, we will discuss with you whether any expenses may be reimbursed.
- 3.3. We may reimburse to you authorised expenses actually and reasonably incurred in the performance of your duties in accordance with our current expenses policies, provided
 - 3.3.1. we are satisfied that the reimbursement would not offend against any applicable salary sacrifice or other legislative requirements

- 3.3.2. we are satisfied that the expense claimed can legitimately be reimbursed without deduction of tax and NIC
 - 3.3.3. both the nature of the expense and the amount are (where practicable, and where applicable) agreed in advance
 - 3.3.4. you comply with our current rules and procedures for expense claims
 - 3.3.5. the claim is (unless our current expenses policy states otherwise) accompanied by receipts, and is submitted at the same time as any timesheet for the period in question.
- 3.4. Any claim for expenses which are expected to be passed on to the Client may only be made direct to the Client if the Client's expense procedures require that you do so; and if you make any such expense claim direct to the Client, you must provide us with a copy of every such claim, and with such further details as we may require, to enable us to comply with our own legal obligations.
- 3.5. Ad hoc Pay Advances
- 3.5.1. In this clause
 - 3.5.1.1. 'Pay Advance' means an advance by us to you, on account of your accrued entitlement to pay for time already worked.
 - 3.5.1.2. 'Pay Advance Partner' means a company administering requests made to us for Pay Advances.
 - 3.5.1.3. 'Administration Fee' means our Pay Advance Partner's administration fee, in relation to a Pay Advance; the amount will vary according to the amount of the Pay Advance, and will be disclosed to you before you decide whether or not to accept any offer of a Pay Advance.
 - 3.5.2. You may from time to time be eligible to request Pay Advances.
 - 3.5.3. By making a request for a Pay Advance, you consent to your personal data held by us being processed by us and by our Pay Advance Partner (acting as our data processor) for all related purposes, including considering and processing your request, and obtaining repayment of any Pay Advance we may make.
 - 3.5.4. In considering any request for a Pay Advance, your employment record with us, and the history of any previous Pay Advances made to you, will be taken into account, but no third party credit check will be made, and no 'footprint' will be left on your credit record. We may (but are not obliged to) agree your request.
 - 3.5.5. We, in conjunction with our Pay Advance Partner, may introduce an online system to manage requests for Pay Advances. If we do so, decisions in relation to requests for Pay Advances may be made on an automated basis.
 - 3.5.6. No interest is payable in respect of Pay Advances repaid on the due date.
 - 3.5.7. Any Pay Advance we may agree to make
 - 3.5.7.1. will be subject to your agreement to pay the Administration Fee
 - 3.5.7.2. will be paid direct into your bank account
 - 3.5.7.3. will be repayable from (and may be deducted from) your net pay.
 - 3.5.8. The Administration Fee will be payable from (and may be deducted from) your net pay.
 - 3.5.9. To extent not so deducted and repaid, a Pay Advance, together with the Administration Fee, shall constitute a debt due from you, and shall be payable on demand.
- 3.6. Deductions:
- 3.6.1. We will make all necessary deductions from your pay as required by law.
 - 3.6.2. If any money becomes lawfully due from you to us (including Pay Advances, and money that may have been overpaid to you in error), we may deduct all or part of such money from pay, expenses, or any other payments due from us to you.

- 3.6.3. If we have advanced you monies against your accrued paid leave entitlement, we may recoup that advance by deduction or set-off against any payment due to you for paid leave, as and when you actually become entitled to receive such payment.
- 3.6.4. If you are in breach of contract we may withhold the whole or part of any monies otherwise due to you in full or partial compensation for our losses resulting from your breach, provided that we may not withhold more than would be reasonable compensation for such breach.
- 3.6.5. If in breach of contract you terminate an Assignment without giving the full period of notice that you are contractually required to give, or if you fail to pay the Client an amount the Client reasonably considers to be due from you to the Client, and (in either case) if as a result the Client withholds part or all of any payment due to us in respect of services you have provided, we may withhold payment of a corresponding amount from any sums due to you (including pay).
- 3.6.6. If any equipment is issued to you for the purposes of or in connection with an Assignment, you must use it for no other purposes, take all proper care of it, and return it at the end of the Assignment in good serviceable condition, fair wear and tear only excepted. Failure by you to so return any such equipment would be a breach of contract, and pending such return we may withhold payment of any sums due to you (including pay), provided that we may not withhold more than the value of the equipment (if not returned) or the cost of repair (if returned damaged).
- 3.6.7. If a motor vehicle made available to you by a Client suffers damage whilst is in your charge, and if after investigation you are found to be responsible for the damage, you will be liable for the cost of repairing such damage, up to a maximum of the excess applicable under the Client's motor insurance policy.
- 3.6.7.1. Pending conclusion of the investigation, if the Client withholds part or all of any payment due to us in respect of services you have provided, we may withhold payment of a corresponding amount from any sums due to you (including pay); and if the investigation concludes that you were responsible for the damage, we may retain the cost of repair, up to a maximum of such excess.
- 3.6.7.2. We may make deductions in respect of any Penalty Charge Notice or other road traffic fixed penalty for which you have incurred liability.
- 3.6.8. Subject thereto, and to End-Client authorisation in respect of any hours worked in excess of those specified in your current Employee Assignment Schedule, we will not withhold wages in respect of any periods you have actually worked, whether or not we are paid by the Client.

4. HOLIDAYS AND PAID LEAVE

- 4.1. Unless otherwise notified to you in relation to (and for the duration of) a specific Client Assignment, your annual paid leave entitlement is 5.6 weeks per year, and during the first year of your employment accrues at $5.6/12 = 0.4667$ working weeks per month ($5.6/52 = 0.1077$ working weeks per week). For the avoidance of doubt, bank and public holidays falling on days which would otherwise be normal working days, but which are not in fact worked by you, will be taken as part of your annual paid leave entitlement.
- 4.2. Payment in respect of annual paid leave will generally be made out of your annual paid leave reserve fund. Unless otherwise notified to you in relation to (and for the duration of) a specific Client Assignment, your annual paid leave reserve fund accrues at the rate of $5.6/46.4 = 12.07\%$ of your gross pay (disregarding paid leave itself, and any advances we may agree to make against your annual paid leave reserve fund).
- 4.3. To the extent that payment in respect of annual paid leave can be funded from your annual paid leave reserve fund, you may take any annual paid leave entitlement at any time, subject only to the requirements of any current Client Assignment. We will not generally approve requests to take annual paid leave exceeding that which can be funded from your annual paid leave reserve fund.

- 4.4. We will honour any additional statutory rights to paid leave to which you may from time to time become entitled (such as maternity/paternity, adoption or shared parental leave, or paid time off for ante-natal appointments).
- 4.5. Periods not worked (other than as a result of sickness or injury, or the exercise of some additional statutory right to which you may from time to time become entitled (such as maternity/paternity, adoption or shared parental leave, or paid time off for ante-natal appointments)) will be taken as annual paid leave, to the extent of accrued but any untaken annual paid leave entitlement, and thereafter will be treated as unpaid leave.
- 4.6. The holiday year runs from 1st January in each year;
 - 4.6.1. On a change to the start date for the holiday year, a pro rata calculation will be made, and any balance of annual paid leave entitlement (whether surplus or deficit) will be carried forwards from the last holiday year with the previous start date to the first holiday year with the new start date;
 - 4.6.2. subject thereto, accrued annual paid leave entitlements may not be carried forwards from year to year, and it is your responsibility to ensure that you take any accrued annual paid leave entitlement before the end of the holiday year.
- 4.7. The amount of a week's pay for the purposes of paid leave will be calculated in accordance with the Working Time Regulations 1998 (as amended), and based on an average of your gross pay (disregarding paid leave itself, and any advances we may have made against your annual paid leave reserve fund) calculated over the applicable reference period (generally 12 weeks until 6th April 2020, thereafter 52 weeks).
- 4.8. You have no other entitlement to paid leave.

5. SICKNESS AND INJURY

- 5.1. We will make payments of such statutory sick pay as may be due to you in respect of any period of absence. Should you recover damages from any third party in respect of any period of absence you will repay any sums paid to you under this clause. We do not make any payment for sickness and injury beyond statutory sick pay as required by law. For Statutory Sick pay purposes qualifying days are your normal working days under your current Assignment.
- 5.2. If you are absent from work for any reason and absence has not previously been authorised by us you, must inform us and the End Client as early as possible. Any absence not previously authorised must be properly explained and in the case of an absence of uncertain duration you must keep us regularly informed of its expected duration.
- 5.3. If you are absent from work due to sickness or injury which continues for more than five working days (excluding weekends) you must provide us with a medical certificate from your doctor on the sixth day of sickness or injury. Thereafter medical certificates must be provided to us on a weekly basis.
- 5.4. Sickness absence related to an injury or accident at work must be reported to our HR team immediately or, in the case of incapacity, as soon as if reasonably practical.
- 5.5. Immediately following return to work after a period of absence which has not previously been authorised you are required to complete a Self-Certification form stating the dates of and the reason for absence, including details of sickness on non-working days (this information is required by us for calculating Statutory Sick Pay entitlement).
- 5.6. We reserve the right to require you at any time to be examined at our expense by a doctor or medical consultant of our choice; if we so require, you will authorise the doctor or medical consultant to disclose to us the results of the examination and to discuss with us any matters arising from such examination which might affect your performance of your duties.

- 5.7. You warrant that you have disclosed (and on an ongoing basis will promptly disclose) to us any medical conditions or other circumstances known to you which might adversely affect your ability to perform the duties of the Position, and/or of any Assignment we may propose to allocate to you.

6. WORKING DAYS AND HOURS

- 6.1. The expected hours of work during any assignment will be 35-40 hours per week. Your normal working days and normal working hours are such days and hours as we may specify from time to time to be required for the current Assignment. The days and times may be set and varied by us from time to time. You will work such additional hours as we agree. You will be entitled to an unpaid lunch break (minimum 20 minutes) where your Assignment requires you to work more than six hours in any one day.
- 6.2. Flexible hours may be required from time to time, in relation to an Assignment. It is your responsibility to maintain records of hours and days worked, to produce such records to us whenever required to do so, and to ensure that you do not work for more than 46.4 weeks in any year.
- 6.3. The Client may, for whatever reason, require us to temporarily suspend your Assignment. If your Assignment is to be suspended, we will give you as much notice as possible. You will not be entitled to be paid in respect of any such period of suspension.
- 6.4. We are required to display on your payslip the total number of hours for which you have worked during each pay period.
- 6.4.1. We ourselves may not have direct visibility of these hours (for example, if you send a timesheet direct to the agency, or if you are paid on the basis of a day rate and not by the hour).
- 6.4.2. To enable us to comply with our own obligations, you must therefore:
- 6.4.2.1. keep appropriate records, and
- 6.4.2.2. notify us on an ongoing basis of the total number of hours worked during each pay period, and
- 6.4.2.3. notify us promptly if you consider the figure stated on your payslip for the total number of hours worked to be inaccurate.

7. WORKING TIME REGULATIONS AND EU DRIVERS' HOURS RULES

- 7.1. Definitions applicable throughout this section:
- 7.1.1. 'EU Drivers' Hours Rules' means the Community Drivers' Hours Regulation (EC) 561/2006, as amended by The Drivers' Hours and Tachographs (Amendment etc.) (EU Exit) Regulations 2019 (SI 2019 no 453), Regulation (EU) 2020/1054, and the Drivers' Hours and Tachographs (Amendment) Regulations 2021 (SI 2021 no 135).
- 7.1.2. 'Periods of Availability' means periods of waiting time as defined under the Road Transport (WT) Regulations, namely periods of waiting time the duration of which is known about in advance by you. Such periods of time consist of time spent when you are not required to remain at your workstation, but must be available to answer calls to start or resume driving or other work on request; and the period and the foreseeable duration is known in advance, either before departure or just before the start of the period of availability in question.
- 7.1.3. 'Road Transport (WT) Regulations' means the Road Transport (Working Time) Regulations 2005 or any other Regulations that supersede or replace these Regulations.
- 7.1.4. 'Mobile Worker' means any worker forming part of the travelling staff, including trainees and apprentices, who is in the service of an undertaking which operates transport services for passengers or goods by road for hire or reward or on its own account;

- 7.1.5. 'Other Work' means all activities which are defined as working time under the Working Time Directive except driving and includes any work within or outside the transport industry where you are not at the disposal of us or of the Client;
- 7.2. Unless you are a Mobile Worker working in operations that are subject to EU Drivers Hours Rules, or are working in an industry to which other special rules apply:
- 7.2.1. 'Working Time' means working time as defined by the Working Time Regulations 1998 as amended ("WTR") as amended.
- 7.2.2. The Working Time Regulations 1998 require that you do not work for more than 48 hours in any week, unless you have agreed in advance to waive that limit. You may indicate such agreement in Annex B.
- 7.2.2.1. If you have indicated such agreement in Annex B, the 48 hour limit specified in the Working Time Regulations 1998 shall not apply to your employment, for so long as such agreement remains in force; you have the right to give us 3 months' notice in writing to withdraw such agreement.
- 7.2.2.2. If you have not indicated such agreement in Annex B, or if you do so indicate but subsequently withdraw such agreement, the Company must ensure that it does not offer you work which would result in you working for more than 48 hours in any week. You must therefore keep the Company informed of the hours that you work for third parties, so that it can comply with its own obligations.
- 7.2.3. Time spent travelling to the Client's premises; lunch breaks and other rest breaks shall not count as part of your Working Time for these purposes.
- 7.3. If you are a Mobile Worker and are working in operations that are subject to EU Drivers Hours Rules:
- 7.3.1. 'Working Time' means working time as defined by the Road Transport (WT) Regulations, namely, time consisting of those periods during which you are at your workstation at the disposal of us or the Client and exercising your functions or activities, and (where the Road Transport (WT) Regulations apply) such periods of time as are devoted to road transport activities, such as driving, loading, and unloading, assisting passengers boarding a vehicle, cleaning and maintenance of a vehicle, and all other work intended to enhance the safety of a vehicle, cargo and passengers or to fulfil the legal or regulatory obligations directly linked to specific transport operations.
- 7.3.2. The relevant reference period to calculate average Working Time used by the Employment Business will be a 17-week reference period as specified in the Road Transport (WT) Regulations.
- 7.3.2.1. The start date for the relevant reference period shall be the date on which you commence the first Assignment.
- 7.3.2.2. In certain circumstances, this reference period may be changed to a rolling 17-week reference period, in which case we will notify you in writing accordingly.
- 7.3.2.3. In addition, the relevant reference period used by us may be increased to 26 weeks if you enter into a valid collective or workforce agreement with us.
- 7.3.3. Time spent doing Other Work for any employer shall not be counted as rest for the purposes of the EU Drivers Hours Rules; and for these purposes, the number of hours worked by you during a week comprises
- 7.3.3.1. the total number of hours of Other Work for any employer except us and the Client,
- 7.3.3.2. Working Time for us and the Client, and
- 7.3.3.3. the total number of hours spent as Periods of Availability as defined under the Road Transport (WT) Regulations.
- 7.3.4. Time spent travelling to the Client's premises, lunch breaks and other rest breaks shall not count as part of your Working Time or Periods of Availability and accordingly you will not be paid for such periods of time.

7.3.5. You must take all reasonable steps to comply with the EU Drivers' Hours Rules and the Road Transport (WT) Regulations, and observe all rules relating to the operation and maintenance of any vehicle, including those relating to the conduct of operation.

7.3.6. You must not accept or undertake any work that causes you to infringe the EU Drivers' Hours Rules or the Road Transport (WT) Regulations.

8. PENSIONS

8.1. The statutory Pension Auto-Enrolment provisions will apply. The Company will comply with the employer pension duties to you, in accordance with Part 1 of the Pensions Act 2008.

8.2. The Company's chosen Auto-Enrolment pension scheme provider is National Employment Savings Trust (NEST). The Company reserves the right to change its chosen Auto-Enrolment pension scheme provider from time to time, and you will be notified of any such changes.

8.3. Subject thereto, there is no company pension scheme.

8.4. Your Pay Reference Period for the purpose of Pensions Auto-Enrolment will be Monday to Sunday when Weekly paid (or when paid by reference to multiples of a week) and each Calendar Month when Monthly Paid.

9. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

9.1. All rights in the nature of Intellectual Property Rights (including, but not limited to, copyright) arising in any work created by you (whether alone, or in conjunction with others) in the course of an Assignment must be disclosed promptly to us, and shall vest in us. It is our responsibility to pass on to any third party such rights as we have agreed. You will cooperate fully in any formal steps reasonably required by us so as to put this term into effect. If we so require, you will sign any reasonable form of assurance of Intellectual Property rights which may be required. This clause 9.1 shall not apply, to the extent that it conflicts with the provisions of any document approved by us and signed direct between you and the End Client.

9.2. You will indemnify us against any liability we may incur as a result of any alleged infringement of any third party's intellectual property rights as a result of any act by you, other than to the extent that any such infringement results from compliance with any Specifications issued by us or by an End Client.

10. CONFIDENTIALITY

10.1. You may not disclose or use for your own purposes or for any purposes (other than ours) any information of a private, confidential, or secret nature which you have obtained by virtue of this contract or any Assignment and either relating to us or to our business, or in respect of which we owe an obligation of confidence to an End Client or any third party:

10.1.1. during this contract or any Assignment, except in the proper course thereof, or

10.1.2. at all, after the termination thereof.

10.2. You will sign any reasonable form of non-disclosure, secrecy, or confidentiality agreement that may be required from time to time.

10.3. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing precludes you from making a "protected disclosure" within the meaning of Part 4A (Protected Disclosures) of the Employment Rights Act 1996. This includes protected disclosures made about matters previously disclosed to another recipient.

10.4. Your obligations under this clause shall survive the termination of this Agreement, for whatever reason.

11. SOCIAL MEDIA, COMPUTERS, AND TELECOMMUNICATIONS

- 11.1. You will comply with all applicable policies (both ours, and those of any Client for whom you may be engaged on an Assignment) in relation to social media and the use of computer and telecommunications equipment.

12. DISCIPLINARY AND GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES

- 12.1. Disciplinary and Grievance Procedures based on those recommended by ACAS will generally be followed. These procedures are not contractual, and the Company reserves the right to depart from them at its discretion, and/or to change them from time to time. A copy of the procedures in force at the date of this contract is at Annex C.
- 12.2. Any grievance should be brought to the attention of your Bar2 account manager in the first instance. If your account manager is unable to resolve it, you may refer it to a Bar2 Director.
- 12.3. Appeals in relation to disciplinary matters may be made to a Bar2 Director.

13. TERMINATION

- 13.1. There is no probationary period associated with your employment. Your employment is not for a fixed term and is not of a temporary nature. It may be terminated by notice, as set out in this clause (or, where we are justified in so doing, for example as a result of gross misconduct, without notice and without making payment in lieu of notice).
- 13.2. Termination of an Assignment does not terminate your contract of employment.
- 13.3. You may not terminate your employment until any current Assignment can also be lawfully terminated by us. Annex C. Bar 2064 Limited - Disciplinary and Grievance Procedures

(based on ACAS Code of Practice on Disciplinary and Grievance Procedures 2015. These are the procedures in force at the date of this contract. They are not contractual, and we reserve the right to depart from them at our discretion, and/or to change them from time to time.)

Disciplinary Procedure1. Purpose and scope

The organisation's aim is to encourage improvement in individual conduct or performance. This procedure sets out the action which will be taken when disciplinary rules are breached.

2. Principles

The procedure is designed to establish the facts quickly and to deal consistently with disciplinary issues. No disciplinary action will be taken until the matter has been fully investigated.

At every stage employees will be informed in writing of what is alleged and have the opportunity to state their case at a disciplinary meeting and be represented or accompanied, if they wish, by a trade union representative or a work colleague.

An employee has the right to appeal against any disciplinary penalty.

3. The Procedure*Stage 1 – first warning*

If conduct or performance is unsatisfactory, the employee will be given a written warning or performance note. Such warnings will be recorded, but disregarded after 12 months of satisfactory service. The employee will also be informed that a final written warning may be considered if there is no sustained satisfactory improvement or change. (Where the first offence is sufficiently serious, for example because it is having, or is likely to have, a serious harmful effect on the organisation, it may be justifiable to move directly to a final written warning.)

Stage 2 – final written warning

If the offence is serious, or there is no improvement in standards, or if a further offence of a similar kind occurs, a final written warning will be given which will include the reason for the warning and a note that if no improvement results within a specified period, action at Stage 3 will be taken.

Stage 3 – dismissal or action short of dismissal

If the conduct or performance has failed to improve, the employee may suffer demotion, disciplinary transfer, loss of seniority (as allowed in the contract) or dismissal.

Gross misconduct

If, after investigation, it is confirmed that an employee has committed an offence of the following nature (the list is not exhaustive), the normal consequence will be dismissal without notice or payment in lieu of notice:

- theft, damage to property, fraud, incapacity for work due to being under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs, physical violence, bullying and gross insubordination.

While the alleged gross misconduct is being investigated, the employee may be suspended, during which time he or she will be paid their normal pay rate. Any decision to dismiss will be taken by the employer only after full investigation.

Appeals

An employee who wishes to appeal against any disciplinary decision must do so to the named person in the organisation within five working days. The employer will hear the appeal and decide the case as impartially as possible.

Grievance Procedure

Dealing with grievances informally

If you have a grievance or complaint to do with your work or the people you work with you should, wherever possible, start by talking it over with your manager. You may be able to agree a solution informally between you,

Formal grievance

If the matter is serious and/or you wish to raise the matter formally you should set out the grievance in writing to your manager. You should stick to the facts and avoid language that is insulting or abusive.

Where your grievance is against your manager and you feel unable to approach him or her you should talk to another manager or a director.

Grievance hearing

Your manager will call you to a meeting, normally within five days, to discuss your grievance. You have the right to be accompanied by a colleague or trade union representative at this meeting if you make a reasonable request.

After the meeting the manager will give you a decision in writing, normally within 24 hours.

Appeal

If you are unhappy with your manager's decision and you wish to appeal you should let your manager know.

You will be invited to an appeal meeting, normally within five days, and your appeal will be heard by a more senior manager (or a director). You have the right to be accompanied by a colleague or trade union representative at this meeting if you make a reasonable request.

After the meeting the manager (or a director) will give you a decision, normally within 24 hours. The manager's (or a director's) decision is final.
